

FLINT SCHOOL OF PERFORMING ARTS
MUSIC SUPPORT FUND
APPLICATION

The Music Support Fund provides awards to Flint School of Performing Arts students with significant need to assist with the purchase or rental of instruments and supplies, repairs, accompanist fees, or other related music expenses. Awards are not made for tuition or trips. Applications may be submitted at any time, but please allow five weeks to process.

Requirements:

1. Be a fully enrolled music lesson student for the current term and the previous 4 consecutive terms on the same instrument (summer may be excluded).
2. Have a balanced account.

Process:

1. Submit application by fax, email or in person. Please print clearly. You will receive a confirmation email that your application has been received within 2 business days. If you do not, please contact the office to confirm that your application has been received.
2. Allow 2 weeks for award decision.
3. You will be contacted by email regarding award decision.
4. If awarded, your check will be issued upon submission of thank you letter and receipt. These items must be submitted within two months of notification to receive award.
